

OWNER IS FINED FOR WILD HORSES

Wynnedale Avenue Residents
Annoyed as Steeds Break Loose.

GALLOPED ON PORCHES

Residents of Wyndale avenue got an unpleasant taste of Wild West days over the past weekend, when two large truck horses, the property of one Bill Bollard, ran amuck over streets, lawns and porches.

On Friday and Saturday the animals broke loose on several occasions. Parents feared for the safety of their children and automobile drivers narrowly averted accidents as the horses bolted into the middle of the road.

Saturday night they broke loose again. After midnight residents were awakened by the pounding of hoofs on their porches and the sound of heavy animals tearing up their flower beds. Complaints were soon forthcoming and the owner of the horses arrested.

Bollard was arraigned before Magistrate Fred Walzer at Ardmore early Sunday morning. Reminded that it was his third offense he shrugged his shoulders and professed a thorough ignorance of the English language and American customs.

A fine of $15 and costs amounting to $3.50 were imposed. Further he was given ten days to get the offending beasts outside of the borough limits to stay.

On Thursday they were reported loose again, but the ten-day period had not expired. If the ruling of the Magistrate is not carried out, the authorities declare that Bollard will repose in jail until it is.

SOPRANO HAS OVER 500 SONGS IN REPERTOIRE

Anna Case in Intimate Recital to Appear in Ardmore Sunday.

It is estimated that Anna Case, the distinguished American soprano, who will give one of her recitals Sunday afternoon at the Ardmore Theatre under the auspices of the Main Line Orchestra Association, has in her repertoire over 500 songs, exclusive of operatic arias. Miss Case has always been noted for her varied program and is indefatigable in searching out new material.

One of her principal reasons for going to Europe during the past summer, aside from her successful debut recital at Queen's Hall, London, was to secure personally new manuscript material for use on the programs of her extensive tours this season. Miss Case sings in English, French, Italian, German and Scandinavian, being noted for the clarity of her diction in all these tongues.

DOROTHY JOHNSTONE BASELER

Soloist at Baptist Church Next Sunday Evening.

Dorothy Johnstone Baseler, the distinguished harp soloist, will be the guest of the Baptist Church of the Evangel at the monthly musical service, Sunday evening, March 7.

Mrs. Baseler, who lives in Cynwyd, is too well known to need any introduction to a local audience. Indeed, her artistry has carried her name far beyond such limited fields.

Her solo numbers will be:
(a) "Song Without Words," Faure.

(b) "Evening Song," Schumann.

(c) "Romanze," Sodero.

(d) "Cantilene," Zabel.

With the quartet she will offer: "Adore and Be Still," Gounod.

This will undoubtedly be an evening of rare musical attractiveness and inspiration. The Baptist Church is proud of the distinct honor of presenting Mrs. Baseler on this occasion.

INCOME TAX AID

Thomas A. Ryan, Internal Revenue agent, will be at the Narberth branch of the Merion Title and Trust Company on March 8 and 9 to assist local taxpayers in making out and filing their returns for the income tax.

ANNA CASE,
who will give a recital at the Ardmore Theatre, Sunday afternoon, under the auspices of the Main Line Orchestra Association.

Narberth Fire Company Called Out to Quench Several Blazes

Last Thursday night numerous banquets told the Narberth firemen that they were good. The company, during the past week, has had several opportunities to demonstrate that fact.

The first and most serious of the blazes occurred Sunday morning. At 9.30 George W. Michener, of 104 Elmwood avenue, was shaving when a passerby informed him that the roof of his home was ablaze.

Mr. Michener rushed to the phone. The call was confused, and considerable delay resulted in getting a connection. Finally, by means of the police phone, the fire house was reached and the alarm sounded.

When the firemen arrived they found the attic and roof in flames. Then followed a quarter hour of intelligent firemanship, during which the blaze was extinguished without drowning out the rest of the house.

A "wash nozzle" was attached to one of the big hose lines. By means of this a small spray of water was applied to the flames from the inside of the house. Two small chemical lines and a judiciously used ax enabled the firemen to conquer the blaze, which had gained considerable headway, with a minimum of water loss.

The fire was caused, it is believed, by a spark from the chimney which lodged on the wooden shingles and spread down an air shaft to the attic. A large part of the roof was burned and some of the adjoining parts of the house. The damage, estimated at $2000, is covered by insurance.

The Michener family have taken up their residence next door while repairs are being made. "Our Town" has been requested to extend the thanks of the family to the neighbors for their help and to the firemen for their care and courtesy.

At 8.15 P. M. of the same day fire was discovered in the chimney of the home of W. G. Masten, 222 Essex avenue.

The blaze was discovered by a passing policeman who turned in an alarm. The fire was extinguished by the use of chemicals, without drowning out the rest of the house.

At 2 P. M. the following day the company fought a field fire at Mill road and Manor road with brooms, soon conquering the flames.

On Thursday, at 4.15 P. M., a call was received from the home of Sam Lowe, State road. A chimney fire had communicated to the attic. It was put out with trifling damage.

BOOTH TARKINGTON PLAYS

Two one-act plays by Booth Tarkington, "The Trysting Place" and "The Travelers," will be presented by the young people of the Methodist Church on Friday, March 26, in Elm Hall. "The Trysting Place," with its humorous situation and delightful characters, never fails to entertain. It is an old favorite of Booth Tarkington readers and always calls forth enthusiastic response. "The Travelers," though of a very different type, is also abounding in real comedy and promises as many laughs as "The Trysting Place." You can't miss either of them, so mark the 26th on your calendar with red ink.

BIRTH CONTROL MEETING

Narberth residents have been invited to attend a meeting on Tuesday, March 16, at 2 P. M., at the Merion War Tribute House.

The meeting will be held under the auspices of the Merion and North Ardmore branches of the League of Women Voters.

The speaker will be Miss Elizabeth Grew, of London, England, Pennsylvania State organizer for the American Birth Control League.

PANTHERS DINE

A stag dinner was held by graduates of the University of Pittsburgh at the Rendezvous on March 1 for the purpose of organizing a Pitt Club of Philadelphia.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, A. Paul Lefton; Vice President, Leo R. Isenthal; Secretary-Treasurer, Desmond J. McTighe, of Narberth.

Harvey Harman, also of Narberth and former giant All-American tackle at Pitt and now coach of Haverford College, peddled the dope on Pitt's next year's football prospects.

J. E. Patterson and B. F. Livingston, of Narberth, also Pitt graduates, attended the affair.

JUDGE APPOINTED

On Thursday Governor Pinchot appointed Harold G. Knight, Norristown attorney, to the post of Additional Law Judge of Montgomery county.

He replaces Judge J. Ambler Williams, who became President Judge upon the death of Judge John Faber Miller two weeks ago.

This is your paper and your advice is appreciated.

POET READS FROM HER OWN WORKS

Community Club Hears Mrs.
May Carlton Lord at Meeting.

SETTLE FOR HOMESITE

The Women's Community Club had the unusual pleasure of an author's reading on Tuesday afternoon, when May Carlton Lord, of Glenside, read from her own poems. Mrs. Lord writes mostly verses for or about children; little, simple things with tricky turns of fancy that are most delightful. The tender chuckles that greeted unexpected twists and the occasional furtive tear showed how truly these poems reach the heart. Mrs. Lord varied her program by suitable piano selections.

As a great surprise came the introduction of Miss Helen Goddard, of Philadelphia, a pianist whose brilliant execution and sympathetic expression are most extraordinary for her 14 years. We may some day be proud to boast that we heard her in Narberth at the beginning of her career.

Several interesting announcements were made. The board of directors are proud to say that the club now holds clear title to the lot on Essex avenue. In connection with the final settlement it seems fitting to acknowledge the generosity of our good friends once again:

Merion Title & Trust ..... $500
Mr. John A. Caldwell ..... 100
Mr. W. T. Smedley ..... 100
Mr. J. A. Stretch ..... 20
Mr. George Markle ..... 20

The Hospitality Committee announced that all places for its card parties on March 5 and 12 have already been taken. Reservations should be made soon for the afternoon of March 19 with Mrs. Bruce Carey, 6 Cleveland avenue, and for March 26 with Mrs. J. E. Burrell, 507 Valley View road.

Mrs. F. C. Torrey gave one of her excellent reports on the activities and follies of Congress.

Tea was served by Mrs. L. B. Edgerton, hostess, assisted by Miss Margaretta Runyon, Mrs. Eberhardt Mueller, Mrs. E. H. Cockrill, Mrs. H. F. Stevens and Mrs. A. W. Burns.

A COFFEE PARTY

To Be Given March 17 at Lutheran Church.

On March 17, in the afternoon, from 2 to 4.30 o'clock, a coffee party (kaffee klatch) will be given in the lower room of the Lutheran Church, at Narberth and Woodbine avenues, by Mrs. G. A. Bach and Mrs. H. E. Metius for the benefit of the church.

This will be in the nature of a repetition of the coffee party given by these ladies last year for the same purpose in the home of Mrs. Metius on Anthony Road. On that occasion, over sixty ladies spent a most enjoyable afternoon while being served with coffee and cake. The room in the church building being so much larger will permit of a much greater gathering, and it is hoped that all the friends of the church and its members will make it a point to attend.

Don't wait for a special invitation, just come and bring your sewing. As before, a silver offering, with 25 cents as the minimum, will be taken.

LEAGUE NOTES

The Pennsylvania League of Women Voters have invited all candidates who are filing nomination petitions for the office of Governor and United States Senator to speak at a luncheon at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel, in Philadelphia, on Wednesday, March 31, at 12.30 o'clock, noon. Acceptances from many of the candidates have already been received.

Those who attended a similar luncheon in 1922 will recall how interesting and productive a meeting it was and will want to subscribe for the coming luncheon.

In as much as there are only 80 tables available, the Narberth League has reserved one table accommodating ten persons. Tickets at two dollars each, may be secured by calling Narberth 1638-M.

CROWDING OF JUNIOR H. S. BUILDING MAY SEND 9TH GRADE TO LOWER MERION

School Board Considers Plans to Increase Space Without Erecting New Building.

The ninth grade of the Narberth School may be sent to Lower Merion next year. This possibility was discussed at a special meeting of the Narberth School Board Monday night.

The growing need for more room and a desire to avoid building in the near future has brought the board to the point where the present facilities must be relieved.

An alternative plan calls for the erection of a portable building on the present school property. This would house the domestic science department and the planned manual training course. Of the two plans the first seems to meet with more widespread approval as the sending of additional scholars to Lower Merion fits in with the present plan and entails no capital expense, which even a temporary building would require.

Monday's special meeting was called for the purpose of choosing teachers for next year. All but five of the present faculty were re-elected. Principal George H. Wilson has been instructed to search for strong teachers to fill the vacancies and to nominate these to the board. The complete list will be published when announced by the board.

In connection with the selection of teachers for next year it was decided to re-establish the post of school nurse, which has been vacant this year. In the past this teacher has been an appreciated member of the faculty and the absence of such a nurse this year has been felt.

The new nurse, when appointed, will have charge of the general health of the pupils, in addition to giving lessons on health topics.

The plan to send the ninth grade to Lower Merion comes after nearly three years of experience with the present plan, by which the three upper grades of the high school attend the Ardmore institution. The Narberth Board pays tuition for this service and provides bus transportation to and from the building.

Contracts were recently let for a doubling of the Lower Merion High School plant, as a result of which there will be ample space available for this addition contingent of Narberth students. It is stated that the Lower Merion authorities look with more than casual favor upon the plan to place another Narberth grade under their system.

If the plan goes through, and it may be acted upon this month, there will be three additional classrooms released in the present junior high school building. This extra space will take care of the projected manual training department and will provide enough extra room so that a new building may be indefinitely postponed.

The heavy borough taxes, due to street building and maintenance, would cause the residents to frown upon any program which would tend to jump up the school levy, so that the removal of the ninth grade to Lower Merion is a very probable step.

L. M. HIGH STUDENTS HEAR HOW CARTOONS ARE MADE

Charles H. Sykes, of Ledger Staff, Gives History of His Art.

Charles H. Sykes, Ledger cartoonist and resident of Bala-Cynwyd, spoke to the student body of the High School in the assembly hall last Thursday morning. His talk principally concerned the "History of Cartooning," from the ancient days of hieroglyphics up to the present date.

"A cartoon drawing," he said, "is one of the best methods a paper has in which to put across to the public an otherwise uninteresting problem. The more simple the cartoon the better, for it is easily understood at a glance and enables the reader to get the main details probably more thoroughly than by reading the original article."

COUPLE GIVEN PARTY

Last Saturday night, February 27, 1926, a party was given in honor of Miss Gladys Weiss and her fiancé, Mr. Joseph M. Crooks, by Miss Florence Crooks, at her home, 313 Conway avenue, Narberth.

Miss Rhoda Shepherd and Mr. James Erisman gave an exhibition of the Charleston, which, beyond doubt, was entertainment enjoyed by all. Following this they were entertained by songs from several members present. A typical Scotch song, "Roamin' in the Gloamin'," was the hit of the evening. Games were played and there was dancing throughout the evening. Everyone partook heartily of the refreshments which were served.

Among those present were Rhoda Shepherd, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Crooks, Mr. and Mrs. Erisman and their son, James Erisman, Raymond Wrey, James Wilson, William Holland, William Moffett, all of Philadelphia; Ida Burns, John Erwin, Robert Pettigrew, Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Taylor, Lula Kline, of Ardmore; Hugh Deery, Garrett Hill; Jack Allen and Peter Allen, of Bryn Mawr; William Ramsey, John Zimmerman, Osceola Cook, Rebbe Hill; Mary Clarke, Elsie Jenkins, of Merion; Mr. and Mrs. Weikeit, Mrs. E. W. Crooks, Frederick Crooks, Florence Crooks, Kathleen Crooks, Gladys Weiss and Joseph M. Crooks, all of Narberth.

LIBRARY STILL SHORT OF EQUIPMENT FUND

$350 Still Needed to Prepare New Home.

The $650 mark was reached this week in the campaign to raise $1000 to provide shelving, desk, table equipment for the new home of the Narberth Community Library in the Community Building on the playground. Only $250 now remain to be raised and it is hoped that this will come in soon so that the Library Association can proceed with the necessary arrangements for equipping the new quarters.

One of the most interesting and most complimentary contributions was received this past week. It came in a letter from Mrs. C. L. McLean and Mrs. Hervey C. Keim, secretary and treasurer, respectively, of the Woman's Auxiliary of the late Y. M. C. A., and read as follows:

"When the Woman's Auxiliary of the Narberth Y. M. C. A. disbanded we had left a small fund. We decided to give it to the Library Fund. Herewith enclose check for same. (Check for $38.28.)"

The treasurer of the Narberth Community Library Association is Thomas C. Trotter, Jr., and all checks should be made payable to Mr. Trotter and mailed to him at his home, 209 Woodside avenue, Narberth. The life membership fee is $25 and the yearly membership is $1. Residents contemplating making contributions to the fund will also be interested in knowing that a $5 contribution will pay for one new shelf and $10 will provide two shelves, as well as pay membership dues for five- and 10-year periods respectively.

The Library Equipment Fund as it stands to date is as follows:

A LOYAL CITIZEN
To the Editor

I noticed last Sunday how efficient the fire department of Narberth is, when they were called to a fire on Elmwood avenue. The response was very quick and the work under the efficient management of Mr. Charles Noel was done without any excitement and fuss. Never before have I seen anything handled as capably as this was, and although I am informed that the company has never had the misfortune of having a property lost by fire, it looked to me at the time as though the house was doomed, and when the fire was extinguished I was surprised to see the small loss incurred after all with only slight damage.

This convinces me that the men appreciate the owners' worry that so often water destroys more than the flames, but I find that instead of doing what the Philadelphia Fire Department would have done, almost flooded the house with water, they intelligently fought the fire with chemicals; hence no destruction by water, and the company and the men ought to be commended for all this, and I think it behooves every inhabitant of the borough to do all that is in his power, not only by words of commendation but also financial assistance, because these men do not only pay no attention to the destruction of their clothes and the possibility of their becoming ill from exposure, they also jeopardize their lives. I think that we all ought to give them all the help they ask and Council likewise help them financially to the best of their ability.

Talk is cheap and so are promises. It is action that counts. At the banquet of the fire company Mr. Davis, chief of the Philadelphia Fire Department, tried to impress upon the firemen what should be done when fighting a fire, and I think that our chief and men can show him and the Philadelphia Fire Department the proper way to fight a fire and not flood the house. That can be done very quickly—it is practical experience and men's brains that count and not water (such as our chief and men have always shown and have had). I was glad to learn that Mr. Noel, our chief, was not in favor of shingle roofs and one of our Councilmen admitted that he made a mistake when he voted for shingle roofs instead of slate.

I cannot understand, also, why there is always this talk of joining Philadelphia. We are able to take care of ourselves. We have all the comforts that can be gotten: we have good water, good gas, good police and excellent fire protection. We do not want any Rapid Transit busses going through Narberth, though the Council can prevent this if they will say no; we have good train service; we want a few more electric lights on the streets; we have good streets; all that is necessary for the protection of the health of the grownups as well as the children, good doctors, good schools, good churches, good stores, banking facilities, and also will be given a new railroad station if the gentlemen at the head will do their part and insist upon it from the railroad company.

So if we have all these and we have clean politics, no boss-ridden town, every person can do his own thinking and voting, why then should we want to constantly talk of annexation to Philadelphia? What is the object? What can be accomplished by it? We have all that we want and, as I said before, some things that Philadelphia has not. If these people (who I feel satisfied are few in number) do not like Narberth, it is only seven miles to Philadelphia from here and there are plenty of vacant properties to rent and it does not cost very much to move.

Let us get together more, as a community should, and when we meet our fellow neighbors have a pleasant salute for them and a glad how do you do. Be kind to one another, help one another when necessary and throw the hammer away. Very soon our motto will be: "One for all and all for one."

—A Satisfied Citizen of Narberth.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETS IN SPECIAL SESSION

A committee has been appointed by the board to confer at once with the Lower Merion authorities on the plan.

The board has agreed to the request by the Recreation Board that the school authorities provide supervisors and equipment for the playground next summer. The interest in the playground work last year was sufficiently great to encourage the board to continue this expert supervision.

The Narberth pupils will get an extra day at Easter this year. Vacation starts Friday morning and the scholars need not return until Tuesday morning after Easter. This will give them a four-day respite from study, two of which are vacation.

"LESS WORK FOR MOTHER"

Such Is Motto for Baked Bean Dinner.

Tell her now not to get anything in for dinner on Thursday evening, March 18, because you're going to take her and the children up to the Methodist Church to a real old-fashioned baked bean dinner. It will be a regular epicurean line-up:

there'll be sweet juicy beans and of course with that means all the nice tasty spices that are bound to entice us then you'll also get ham that's home-baked—yes, ma'am! hot rolls, good coffee and paters if that makes you beam how about some ice cream and cake that's not faked but also home-baked?

and now the best news as the price of this food—is your interest intense? can you beat it—60 cents!

Now that woman is doing the work of man, the tables are being turned. On the evening of March 18 the Men's Club of the Methodist Church will have full charge of this delectable feast. Will they cook it, serve it, and put the dishes away? Well, now, don't ask too many questions—it's being given by the Men's Club—that's their story and they're going to stick to it.

As it will be only a few hours after the birthday of Pat, you'll find yourself dining in a refreshing, colorful dell of green shamrocks. Keep the date open, Thursday evening, March 18, Methodist Church, 5.30 to 7.30.

TOWEL BEE

Don't forget to order your towels from the ladies of the Lutheran Church. On Thursday evening, March 11, the ladies will meet at the home of the Misses Hoffsten, 211 Iona avenue, and hem them for you and sell them to you for one cent an inch. Good Irish linen. Phone your order to either Mrs. Louis Frank, Narberth 1659-J, or Mrs. J. C. Van Newkirk, Narberth 1667-M, and towels will be delivered to you ready to use.

This is your paper, and your advice is appreciated.

LITERARY MYSTERY SOLVED

Author of "Glorious Apollo" Also
Author of "Way of the Stars."

While lovers of historical romance are absorbed in "Glorious Apollo," and "The Divine Lady," written by E. Barrington, discriminating lovers of Oriental atmosphere and philosophy are steeping themselves in the charm of "Treasure of Ho" and "The Way of Stars," written by L. Adams Beck. And now it is divulged that E. Barrington and L. Adams Beck are one and the same person, and that that person is a woman, Mrs. Adams Beck.

Mrs. Beck is an Englishwoman, descended from a distinguished line of British navy men from whose family traditions she learned the romances of Lord Nelson which she incorporated into "The Divine Lady," and of Lord Byron, who, under her hands, became "The Glorious Apollo." During her adult life she lived in the East, in India, China, Burma, Japan, and always, she has said in an interview, she mingled with the Oriental in all countries that she might study their beliefs. She has worked with Buddhist priests in translating ancient psalms which had never before been done into English, and she has written stories for Japanese magazines which have been received by them as their own.

This remarkably versatile woman now lives in Victoria, B. C., where she claims to have found a bit of the old England that she has always loved so well. The popularity of her romances and the favorable reception given to her Oriental tales have been a source of joy to her. The library has the four books mentioned above, and listed again below, "Glorious Apollo," "Divine Lady," "Treasure of Ho," "Way of the Stars."

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Narberth Troop at Philadelphia Award Court.

Last Saturday afternoon the Girl Scout Court of Awards was held in Philadelphia. This court of awards differed greatly from many others which were held.

There was a contest held to see which district could earn the largest number of points in demonstrations of Scout work. This occupied about one hour of the afternoon. There were several booths arranged about the room and each one had charge of a certain phase of Scout work. Upon entering a booth the Scout would be questioned or asked to demonstrate something. If she did this satisfactorily she received one or more credits for her districts. Some of the subjects given in the booths were: First Aid, Signaling, Employment Bureau and the Sesquicentennial booth. Our district number 4 won second place in the contest and was awarded an American flag. This flag will be given to one of the troops in our district who do not have one at the present time.

A parade was held in which Scouts from every district took part and enacted several merit badges. Our district demonstrated the swimmer, pathfinder and bugle badges. The manner in which the Scouts were attired was particularly interesting. The "hostess" badge was demonstrated by several Scouts who wore pasteboard posters of tea cups and saucers.

Although the weather was not warm several Scouts were present to enact the swimmer badge. In their bathing suits they ably demonstrated several features of this badge.

We wish to take this opportunity to announce that there will be a Scout cake bake at Dando's store on Saturday, March 13, at 10 o'clock. Dont miss this opportunity to take a delicious cake home. Come early and avoid the arush.

Presbyterian Auxilliary.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Auxilliary of Narberth Presbyterian Church will be held on this Wednesday, March 10, in the church from 10 to 4 o'clock. Sewing and surgical dressings for Presbyterian Hospital, election of new officers, luncheon at 1, social hour, 2 to 3. All women of the congregation are urged to interest their friends in this work.

SIX CLUBS APPLY FOR FRANCHISES

Main Line League Will Open
Baseball Season on May 22.

CYNWYD &amp; PAOLI OUT

The Main Line Baseball League was formerly organized for the 1926 season at its second meeting held Monday night in the Autocar Athletic Association Clubhouse, in Ardmore. Six clubs were granted franchises and officers were elected.

The clubs who sent representatives and who were admitted to the league were Narberth, champions of the past few years; Wayne, Berwyn, the Preston A. A., of Bryn Mawr; the Autocar, of Ardmore, and the Brookline Square Club.

Bala-Cynwyd and Paoli, members of the circuit last year, were invited to join, but no representatives from either appeared. Paoli has been finding difficulty in getting a backer for its nine. It called Monday during the course of the meeting to announce that its last hope, the Paoli American Legion Post, had failed it and that consequently there was little hope for Paoli representation in the league this year.

A letter inviting Bala-Cynwyd to join was sent by President Harry J. Mosteller to John Winters, one of the members of last year's Bala nine. No answer to it had been received at the time of the meeting, and no representatives appeared to speak for the valley club.

In the election of officers, Harry J. Mosteller, of Ardmore, was again made president. Charles Harnden, of Narberth, was elected secretary and treasurer. He succeeded Jack Morris, of Ardmore. The league will open its season on May 22. The first half will end with the doubleheaders on July 4. There will then be a one-week intermission with an open date. The second half will begin on July 17 and will end with Labor Day games on September 6.

NARBERTH JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

Good Speech and Sports Vie for Spotlight.

This week is Good Speech Week in the Narberth School. The ninth grade has adopted a novel scheme to improve the speech of the class. Everyone who makes a mistake in speech or a "slip" in English receives a slip of paper. At the end of the week the class will collect the slips and determine who made the fewest mistakes.

On Friday, February 26, the assembly program was given by the Junior Dramatic Club. They entertained with a pantomime, which proved a great success. Carrie Louise Douglass told the story as each person enacted his part. The characters were as follows:

Richard Sigel, Traveling Companion
Jerry Casey, American Tourist
Helen Newborg, Arabian Girl
Ruth Pickrell, Old Woman
Thomas Casey, William Newborg,
Two Arabian Men

James McIntire, Minister
The audience was so appreciative that it was repeated in response to great applause.

There is much doing in the sport world. The interclass indoor track meet was held Friday, February 26. There were many thrilling moments and the spectators left full of enthusiasm but lacking in voice. There were several records broken. The meet was won by the eighth grade.
